

CLIMBING WALL SYSTEMS: DIGITAL FREEFORM

- Freeform walls seek to emulate real rock, feel natural and are highly featured
- Manufactured by King Kong Climbing Walls in accordance with the official standard for artificial climbing structures: BS EN 12572-1:2007
- Multiple layers of GRP create impact resistant surface which is strong and durable
- Hand sculpted top coating ideal for creating intricate details
- Natural features achievable, with custom relief
- Approx 10 - 15 bolt on sites per sqm allow for continuous and multiple route variation.
- Number of sites can be requested
Threaded internal fixing to allow bolt on holds to easily be reset from the front
- Top coat surface of panels creates a non-aggressive friction/rock like finish allows for smearing techniques to be practiced
- Diverse application and possibilities,
- Custom colour/finish and art work available

